What's New

Welcome to the Sept 2018 edition of the COJO Diving Safety Stop newsletter.

August was a very busy month with courses, trips and just plain summer fun!! Joe was busy finishing up the PADI Jr Open Water course, AWESOME JOB COJO KIDS!! Woo Hoo!!

The long-awaited event to Percé was a huge success!! Awesome work to Hubert and Connie for organizing that one!!

On 17th of August, COJO hosted Scubatheque for their annual Scallop Diving week at COJO North!! They had an awesome time up in Pointe-Verte and got tons of scallops!!

Starting in September, COJO will be hosting the PADI IDC for New Brunswick!! There are several Open Water Scuba Instructor candidates on the course, and this course is going to be totally awesome!! This is the first instructor-level course that PADI has run in New Brunswick!! Woo Hoo!! Good luck to all!!

Coming up on Sept 2nd is COJO's charter to The Wolves. Although this trip is sold out, there will be tons of charters coming up. If you are interested in some Bay Of Fundy charters, don't miss out!! These are going to be awesome!!

There is still one spot left for the 2019 Newfoundland trip!!
